THE PEAK

Foreword

In order to preserve the precious memories only school can bring and to keep within our hearts the joy of another year at Tazewell High School, we bring you the "PEAK" for 1948. Hold it dear and open it with pleasure, looking forward to the pleasant, never-to-be-forgotten memories it contains.

History

The Senior Class of 1948 started to school in 1937. Among the group of first-graders that started in Tazewell Elementary School and who were together all eleven years were Mildred Blessing, Bill Boggess, Betty Leece, Moy Henry Sadler, Moy Tyler Showver, Donald Walk, D. W. Williams, Hollie Yost, Moy and Mortha Young. There were many who joined us each year.

In 1944 we entered Tazewell High School. There were students from Bishop, North Tazewell, Tazewell, and many other nearby communities. That year there were many new things taking place in T.H.S. Mr. Walthall was the new principal, the key system was initiated, Mary Jane Floyd designed our seal, Miss Dickenson pointed it, and the first annual, The Peak, was published.

Sheffey Massie was class president. He made the football team and remained on it all four years. Virginio Mae Von Dyke, became our freshman cheerleader. Betty Harmon and Sheffey Massie were elected the best freshmen. Carolyn Grey joined our class that year.

In our sophomore year Sheffey was again our president. Bill Boggess and Marion Gilliom joined Sheffey in football; Moy Young and Virginia Moe went out for basketball. Sheffey and Virginio Moe were elected best sophomores.

The ones to join our class were Carroll Altizer, Marion Gilliam, and Leonard Rasnick.

Virginio Mae was our junior president. She and Mary continued basketball; Sheffey, Marion, and Bill went out for football; and Virginio Mae was cheerleader. The Junior Plays were great successes. Betty Lou Harman, Betty Leece, and Carroll Altizer had the leading roles.

The prom marked the concluding highlight of our junior year, as we had looked forward to this event since entering high school. We carried out the theme of "Star Dust Ball".

Carrine was elected the most studious, most likely to succeed, and the most sensible; Nancye Hogg, the laziest; and Lorraine Honoker, the most independent. Mortha and Sheffey were selected the most romantic and the most "gruesome two-same". The best Juniors were Lorraine and Randall Morrison. Carrine was secretary-treasurer of the S.C.A.

In the Moy Court were Martha Ann Edwards, Betty Lou Harmon, Nancy Brown, Virginio Moe Van Dyke, and Mortha Ward.

Betty Leece was associate editor of the "The Bulldog", and Corrine, assistant editor of The Peak.

Bernard Beovers, our senior president, took office after the resignation of Dudley Cowan. Carroll Altizer was president of Student Government and Edward Morrison, vice-president. Bill, "Chick", Sheffey, Jack Crabtree, Bowen, Ralph Dye, Leonard Rosnick, and Lawrence Thompson starred in football. Virginio Mae was cheerleader and Nancy Brown, one of her assistants.

Virginio Mae Von Dyke and Bowen Sheets were King and Queen of the Fall Carnival. The best seniors were Carroll and Carrine. Jack Crabtree was selected the most handsome and neatest; and Mortha Ann Edwards, the most beautiful and neatest. Ada Lee, the most carefree; Bowen Sheets and Lorraine Hanoker, the most athletic; Betty Lou and "Chick", the most talented; Betty Lou and Bowen, the most original. Bowen and Virginio were the best sports. Virginio Mae had the best school spirit; Moy Henry was the most courteous. Mortha and Sheffey were most romantic and the cutest couple.

The members of the class to be chosen for "Who's Who in America" were: Bill Boggess, Sheffey Massie, Bernard Beovers, Charles Davis, Bobby Johnson, Betty Lou Harman, Carrine Williams, Mildred Blessing, Virginio Mae Von Dyke, Ann Moy and Betty Leece.

"Chick" was captain and Sheffey was tackle on the all-oreo football team. Don Wolk, Bowen Sheets, Bill Corter "Chick", Lawrence Thompson, Albert McCall, Bert Downs, Leonard Rosnick, and Jack Schell, were our basketball players.

Betty Lou and Bobby Johnson were co-editors of the annual; Corrine, editor of "The Bulldog".

The key winners throughout our high school career were: Ann May, Betty Leece, June Archer Moore, Corrine Williams, Virginio Moe Van Dyke, Moy Henry Sadler, and Mildred Blessing.

Roy Epperson, Charles Davis, June Brown, and Mortha Word joined us as seniors.

The Senior Plays were April 23. The prom was May 14; the Senior Bonquet, May 28. Our graduation, May 31, marked the end of eleven wonderful years of work and play together.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of Tazewell High School, Tazewell, Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all wills and codicils by us at any time heretofore made.

To Mr. McGhee, our principal, and faculty members, who have borne with us in all hours of trials and tribulations, we leave our deepest gratitude and best wishes for the many years left before them that they may make Tozewell High School the some familiar place.

To the Juniors, we leave the honorary place we are now leaving and we wish that they may make Tozewell High School a better place. Our personal wishes are that their last days will be as happy as ours.

Class Prophecy

One day as I was walking down the street, I happened to notice a small cafe and a gypsy fortune teller was sitting in the window. Seeing her I went into the cafe thinking that she might be able to tell me something about my friends of our Class of '48: We were to have a class reunion in about a month and I did not want to attend knowing nothing of my classmates.

The gypsy gazed into her crystal ball and told me that Carroll Altizer has taken Frank Sinatra's place as matinee idol of the "Bobby Soxers". Jack Baridy and Bob Hunt have become well-known artists in New York.

Bill Boggess has taken Einstein's place in the scientific world. Mildred Blessing has become his wife and she is assisting him in his work. Bill Carter has finally married Adelaide, the girl from Richlands.

The scene changed. The gypsy told me to gaze into the crystal ball and what I saw was amazing. I saw a large crowd at a football stadium cheering two men. The men were Bowen Sheets and "Chick" Davis, two great all-American Stars. Sara Katherine Yost was among the cheerleaders, cheering "Chick", on to victory.

The gypsy then told me that Jack Schell and Don Walk have become known all over the world as Basketball Stars.

Then the scene changed from sports to movies. Bill Joe Shrewsbury was playing a great love scene opposite the movie queen, Nancye Brown.

Edgar Yates, Johnnie Lambert and Tommy Myers were in Alaska as aeronautical engineers. Also in Alaska were J. D. Hudson and J. B. Hilmon who have gained fame as wild game hunters.

Dudley Cowan, Raymond Herald, and J. C. Barrett have their own radio program known as the "Hillbilly Hit Parade".

Once again I looked into the crystal ball and saw a famous singer and dancer on Broadway. She was Ruby Mae Riddle, who has become quite famous since high school days.

Kermit Smart was busy campaigning for Congress from the Ninth District of Virginia. According to the crystal ball he will be elected. Bernard Beavers was mayor of North Tazewell; Bobby Johnson was a pharmacist at Jackson-Fleet Drug Store.

Then in the crystal ball the couples that have been married since graduation day began to come down the aisle. There were three couples in all. They were Martha Ward and Sheffey Massie, Jack Crabtree and Martha Ann Edwards, and last but not least came Ray Epperson and June Archer Moore.

D. W. Williams and Harold Sword have opened a drug store in Boston, Massachusetts.

Marian Gilliam is now married to Villa June Sparks, and is teaching astronomy at Williamson High School, Williamson, West Virginia.

Josephine Walk, "Miss Pin Up Girl of '5B", is very much in demand by the George Stone Agency.

Virginia Mae Van Dyke has the position as coach of the girls' basketball team of Tazewell High.

Sam Jack Beavers has his own orchestra now; he has become known as second Frankie Carle. Some of the members of his band are: Ray McElraff, Jack Porter, James Grubb, and Bobby Christian. Rebecca Moore, Eva Green, and Billie Eleanor Moore are vocalists with this famous band and have taken the place of the Andrews Sisters.

Of all the members of the Class of '48, only six have become secretaries. They are Harriet Rutherford, Mary Young, Jean Altizer, Ruth Sheets, June Warf, and Lettie Lawson. Some of the Class have ventured into teaching. Howard Niswander has become professor of physics at West Virginia University. Bonnie Carr, Beulah Brewster, Peggy Gregory, Betty Jean Smith, Hannah Mitchell, Fannie Myers, Alice Puckett, Romia Sparks, Martha Grubb and Hallie Yost have all obtained positions on the teaching staff of Tazewell High.

Edward Morrison, Leonard Rasnick, Ralph Webb, and Clara Denny have all become famous doctors on the staff of Jeffersonville Hospital. Nurses on this staff are: Ida Mae Hall, Lenore Harman, Pauline Shelley, Ada Lee Jessee, Elizabeth Bowman, and Nancye Hagy.

Lula Hankins and Martha Bundy are outstanding librarians in the state of Virginia.

Betty Leece, Carolyn Grey, Ann May, Mary Tyler Shawver, and May Henry Sadler are all touring southern France.

Betty Zane Helmandollar has become the blushing bride of Mr. Sargent.

Jack Puckett is the head of the famous Puckett Modeling School.

Martha Young, Mary Cunningham, and Naomi Boothe have opened a famous beauty school for girls who are overweight.

Connie Rudisill has become quite famous as a shorthand teacher.

Margaret Wynn and Mary Mundy have settled down in California. Margaret married David Harman and Mary, Joe Monk.

Glenn Cochran, Wayvle Hagy, Bill Whitt, and Ralph Dye have signed a contract with Jack Benny. They are called the "L. S. M. F. T. Quartet".

Rozella McCray, Virginia Lovern, and Lorraine Honaker are famous ballet dancers in Canada.

Betty Lou Harman is a famous concert pianist at Carnegie Hall. Wilma Peters is with her as a singer.

Maxine Stout is a cover girl; she was elected "Miss Red Head of '5B".

Isabel Harrison is a famous music teacher at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

Lawrence Thompson has become well known as light weight Champion of the World.

Carrine Williams has been elected preident of the Republican Women of America.

With this information, I paid the gypsy and went on my way looking forward to the day when I should see my former classmates.

Football

HISTORY OF FOOTBALL SEASON

The Bulldogs journeyed to Wor, September 5, to open their season with the Owls of Big Creek. Tozewell met a stubborn and determined team. Neither team could score the winning touchdown and settled for a 7-7 deadlock.

The following Friday the Bulldogs, playing their first home game, defeated the favored Bobcats of Bristol, Va. Jack Crabtree thrilled the large crowd by picking up his own fumble and racing 35 yards for the second and last touchdown. This was number one for the Bulldogs.

On September 19, the Bulldogs traveled to Abingdon and handed that team a 19-7 shellacking. With their eyes on the district crown they showed some of their championship ability.

On the 26th of September, the Bulldogs defeated their first county foe, the Pocahontas Indians. This was the third straight win in district competition.

The following Saturday the Bulldogs traveled to Grohom where they won their second county game and also their fourth game in district competition, by hammering out a 27-13 victory over the G-Men.

On October 10th, the defending county champions from Richmonds came to Tozewell with their spirits high, hoping to retain their position as county champions. But the Bulldogs emerged victorious from the hard fought battle with a 12-0 victory over the high-flying Tornado. This win gave the Bulldogs the county crown and marked the fifth district win. The following Friday night the Bulldogs invaded the Big Orange of Northfork. In this game they woded through the mud for a 6-0 victory.

On October 24th, the Moroon woge from Wytheville, Vo. defeoted the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs received the opening kick-off on their own 20-yard line ond returned it to the thirty. They were held for downs and had to kick. Crockett of Wytheville returned the kick from his own thirty to the thirty-five, where the Wove started a sustained drive for on eorly touchdown. The conversion was not good. The Bulldogs scored their lone touchdown in the lost minutes of the second quarter and missed the conversion. The Moroon Wove scored their winning two points on o blocked punt.

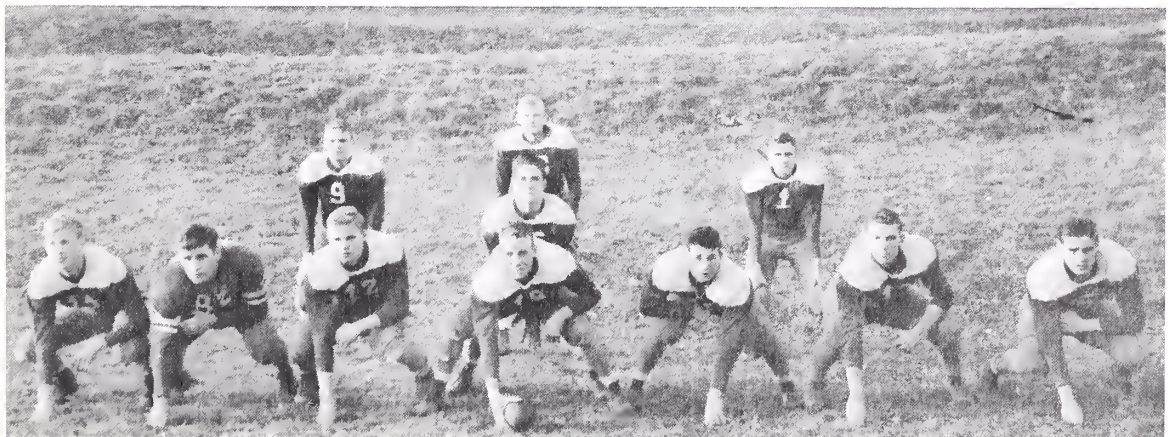

The following Saturday the Bulldogs journeyed to Clintwood and came out with on impressive 31-18 victory. This was a very exciting game in which the forward woll helped the explosive bockfield show some of their best offensive play, with each bockfield man breaking owoy through Clintwood's defense for long scoring runs.

The next Friday night the Bulldogs tangled with the mighty Elkhorn Indions. The Bulldogs scolped the Indions to the tune of 19-14.

On November 14th, the Wise Indions, runners-up for the district chompsonship were defeated by the vicious Bulldogs by the score of 28-0.

The Field House

The Tazewell Athletic Club has aided the athletic program in Tazewell High School by providing a good field house.

The field house, built of cinder blocks, has two large dressing rooms with benches around the wall and lockers above them. The dressing rooms are equipped with two hot water showers. The house contains one large equipment room, which can be locked; also there are rest rooms for the public.

The Tazewell Athletic Club is composed of the following officers:

President	MR. R. O. VAN DYKE
Vice President	MR. A. C. BUCHANAN
Secretary-Treasurer	MR. J. L. WALTHALL
Directors	MR. C. R. BROWN
	MR. NOEL M. WALKER, SR.
	MR. ELMER KISER
	MR. A. WARD DENNISON
	MR. B. W. STRAS
	MR. JOHN G. O'KEEFE, SR.

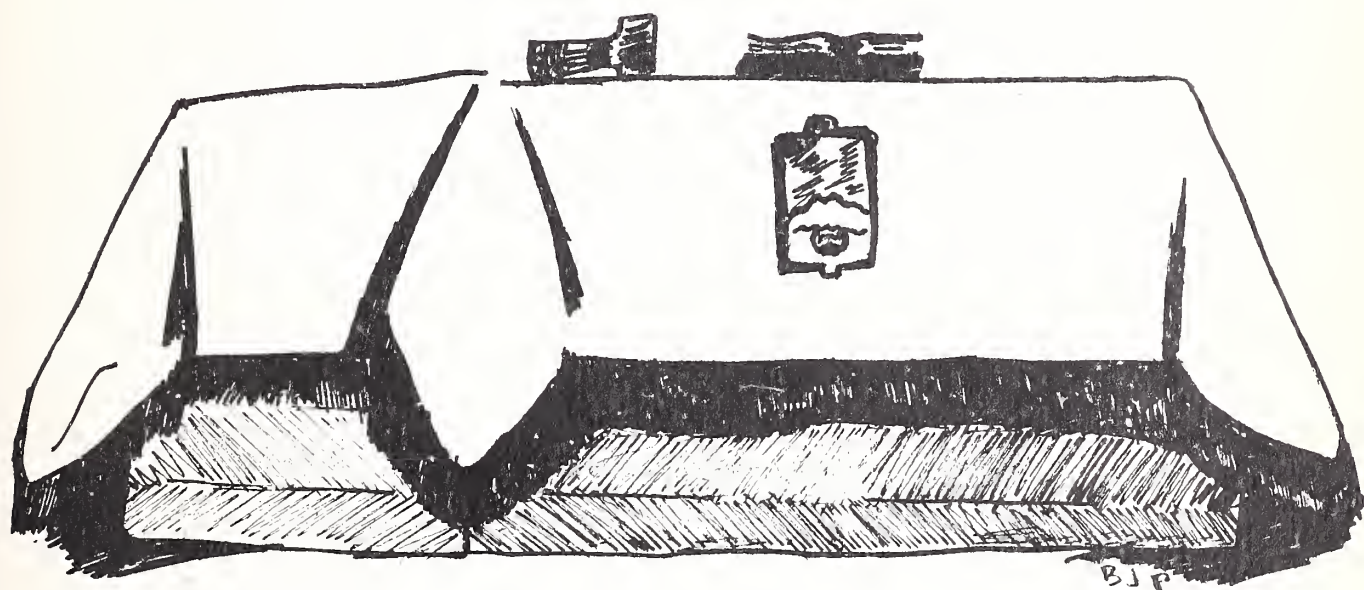

Cheer Leaders

There are six cheerleaders selected annually by the student body of Tazewell High School — one each from the freshman and sophomore classes and two each from the junior and senior classes. A cheerleader has various duties. Besides being present at the football and basketball games, and leading a number of pep meetings in chapel, a cheerleader has to help decorate for the home games and also remain after school for practices. Being a cheerleader is not an easy job but it is a lot of fun leading yells and doing your part to help win the game.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Cooperative Association

"The School and Community Growing Together"

The aims and purposes of the SCA are: To promote citizenship and cooperation, to provide recreation, and to encourage health and self-improvement. The Association makes laws under the authority vested in it by the school constitution. The SCA president and the school principal are in close contact and consult each other before making decisions on important issues.

The success of the SCA depends to a great extent upon the sponsor. Her broad vision of the possibilities of the organization, her genuine interest in its policies, and her wholehearted enthusiasm in helping to plan, guide, and supervise its activities have been for-reaching in the accomplishment of its objectives.

The officers are: Corroll Altizer, President Edward Morrison, Vice President; Don Scott, Secretary-Treasurer; Bobby Johnson, Corrine Williams, Lulo Honkins, Woyvle Hoge, Jessie Dillow, Jonice Bundy, William Akers, Peggy Keister, Tommy Angles, Maxine Asbury, Gene Hort, Carl Day, Jean Kiser, Roger Hoge, James Pruett, R. O. Von Dyke, Bernard Beovers, John Lockhart, Bill Borrett, Virginio Von Dyke, Ann Moy, Freddie McCroy, D. W. Williams, Normo Jeon Moorefield. Sponsor: Miss Annella Greever.

Key Club

The Key Club of Tazewell High School is an honor society which was organized in the fall of 1946. It is composed of those students who have won keys by outstanding achievements in scholarship, citizenship, and activities.

In the year 1945 the idea of an honor society was originated by Mr. J. L. Walthall, then principal of Tazewell High School. The student council, under his guidance, established the requirements for the "point system", which was approved by the student body and put into effect immediately.

The members of the Key Club are:

ANN MAY President

BETTY LEECE Vice President

MARIANNA ROWLETT Secretary-Treasurer

Bill Barrett

Phyllis Belcher

Mildred Blessing

Janice Bundy

Virginia Mae Van Dyke

June Archer Moore

May Henry Sadler

Glee Club

The all-girl glee club provided delightful entertainment for the school and community this year, as well as winning laurels for themselves and the school at music festivals in Bluefield and Pulaski. They gave a chapel program and appeared on the P.T.A. program during the first semester. In the annual Christmas pageant they appeared as the angel choir.

Lorraine Honoker, PRESIDENT; Lorraine Sorgent, VICE PRESIDENT, Moe Henry Sodler, SECRETARY-TREASURER; Gerldine Golding, Jolene Johnson, Mory Jo Newmon, Koren Spence, Ado Lee Jessee, Betty Fritz, Lorraine Doy, Groce Rutherford, Oedo Aldridge, Betty McFarlin, Phyllis Hort, Miss Mory Alice McConnell, Ann Morrow, Moxine Asbury, Poulaine Shelly, Mory Alice Cunningham, Jonice Bundy, Virginio Lovern, Noncy Yost, Mory Jone Gillespie, Elizabeth Troil, Betty Jone Helmondollar Sergeant, Gladys Norris, Joann Lonkford, June White, Betty Jo Steele, Doris Newmon, Noomi Yost, Fonny Myers, Cloro Denny, Jonet Hensley, Elizabeth Sceine, Connie Rudisill, Shirley Jones, June Worf, Alice Puckett, Miss Mory Alice McConnell is the director of the Glee Club.

Library Club

The members of the Library Club are student library assistants. They help to keep the library neat at all times, check books in and out, repair books, help with the bulletin board displays, and are being taught the intricacies of the cataloging system. Miss Nancy Ward, the librarian at T. H. S. is the sponsor.

The members are:

Teen-Age Book Club

The Teen-Age Book Club, sponsored by Miss Nancy Ward, offers the same privileges as an adult book club. The selections for each month are on the reading level of high school students.

The members are: Pete Burkett, Thamo Cruise, Dennis Gillespie, Ann Long, Nancy Buston, Mary Sue Watkins, Jack Fritz, Norman Whitt, Eugene Downs, Lula Mae Hankins, Maxine Stout, Louise Goss, Della Adkins, Alma Adkins, Louise Kiser.

Future Farmers of America

The primary aim of the F. F. A. is the development of the agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. Those who may become members are boys who live on a farm and desire to acquire more knowledge about the scientific way of farming.

Latin Club

Organized by Miss Nancy Leslie in '47, the Latin Club now has 29 members. It is one of the most active clubs in school, meeting every Friday during class period and once a month after school.

In October the club ordered the pins, which are worn only by members. In December the annual Christmas party was held. In January, during the March of Dimes on individual contribution was given from the treasury. Also in January we initiated the new member, Pete Brittain. The club took up the study of Caesar, his life, organization of his armies, his campaigns, costumes.

The initiation of the first year class, held in March proved successful and was climaxed by a party given the club by the first year students. The club sponsored a cotillion party in March, one of the most enjoyable of the season.

THE MEMBERS ARE

Pete Brittain, Billy Moe Bradley, Marie Bowman, Joan Brown, Barbara Brown, Edgar Crackett, Ileno Cruise, Bert Downs, Jessie Dillaw, Phyllis Fanning, Dennis Gillespie, Don Hoback, Patsy Hagy, Goy Herold, Puck Kiser, Peggy Keister, Yvonne Lankford, Joan Lindsay, Wilmo Murray, Betty Mills, Doris McAmis, Macie Peery, Helen Stinnet, Peggy Smith, Dorothy Sparks, Bobby Tweedy, Marianna Rawlett, Rhea Watkins, Mary June Woll.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is a national, state, and local organization, which is composed of students taking or having had at least one year of home economics in junior or senior high schools.

The emblem of this organization is octagonal in shape and bears the name of the organization and the motto, "Toward New Horizons". In the center there is a house supported by two hands showing that the future homes of America are in the hands of its youth.

The colors are red and white, symbolic of youth and home life. The flower is a red rose, a symbol of vibrant, glowing health.

ACTIVITIES...

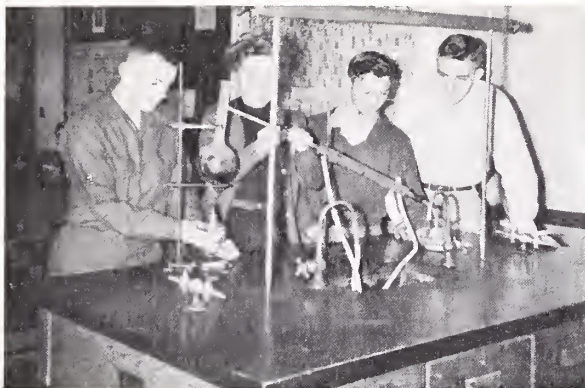

Art Class

Under the direction of Miss Ella Bryant Dickensan, the high school art class is open to those interested in and having a natural talent for painting and drawing.

These artists have painted scenery for the faculty play, the Christmas Pageant, and the class plays.

The industrious group in the art room above is composed of: Miss Dickensan, Jack Gillespie, Martha Young, Charles Williams, Thamo Cruise, Yvonne Lankford, Harald Murray, Eugene Dawns, and Nancy Buston.

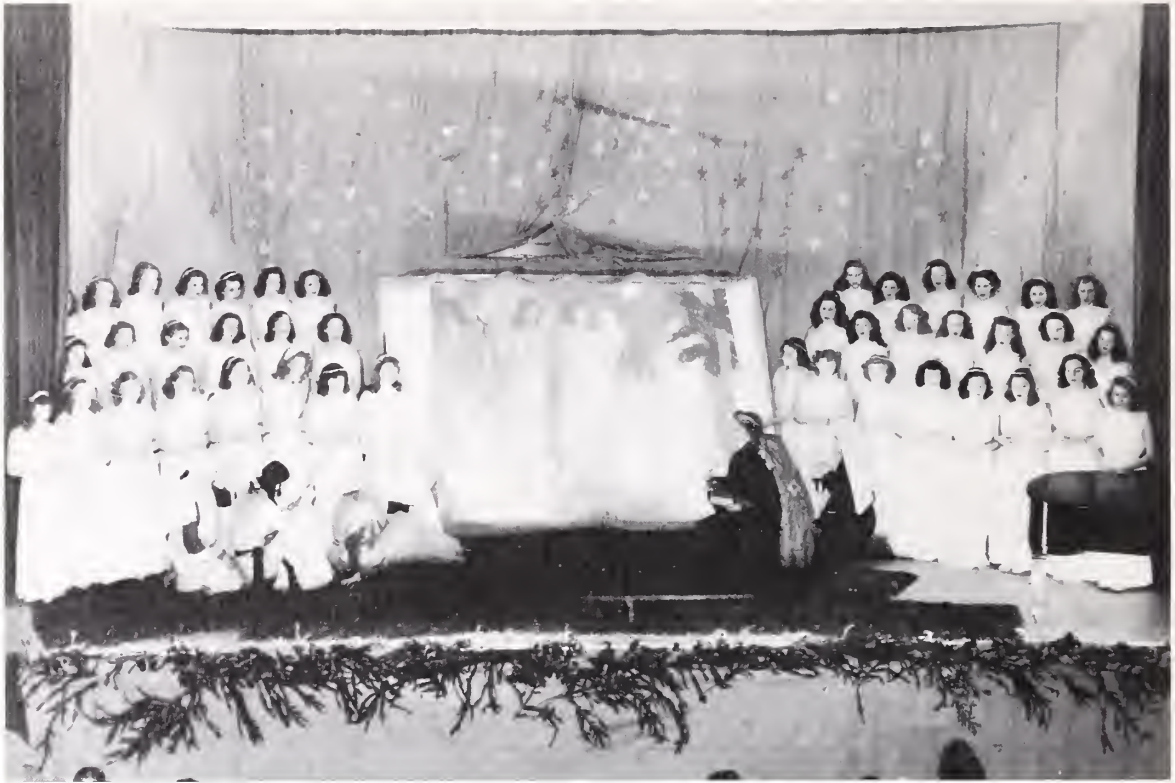

Rhea Watkins, Guy Mutter, and Jack Hageman are performing an experiment in Chemistry under the supervision of Miss Annela Greever.

Typing Classes in Tazewell High School under the direction of Miss Mildred Witten are interesting and profitable to the students.

Jimmy Sizemore, working at the emory wheel in the shop.

Christmas Pageant

"The Gift", was written by Mr. J. L. Waltholl, former principal of Tozewell High School, was presented December 18, 1947, to the public and the following day to the students.

The music was furnished by the Glee Club, under the supervision of Miss McConnell.

"The Gift" carried the theme of world peace and ended with the nativity scene.

This was one of the most impressive pageants ever to be presented in Tazewell High School.

The cost was selected and directed by Miss Ello Bryont Dickenson.

The staff and the other members of the journalism class have strived endlessly to publish a better school paper this year. The Bulldog has been growing during this year. The new addition is the weekly paper, the "BULLPUP", which like the "BULLDOG" and the "PEAK" is published by the journalism class. This paper, distributed on Friday, contains the most important news events of the week.

PREPARING AND SERVING MEALS

HOME DECORATION

CARING FOR THE SICK

The Third Year Home Economics girls are taking Red Cross Home Nursing. The girls are practicing different experiences in this course and when they finish thirty hours class work, they will receive Red Cross Certificates and pins. In the above picture Ida Mae Hall has prepared and is serving the correct diet to the patient, Razella McCray.

TAKING A PULSE

In the picture above, Lula Hankins is taking the temperature and pulse of the patient Razella McCray. This course is being taught with the assistance of the county health nurse, Ruby Wright.

THE TRUE WORTH OF EDUCATION

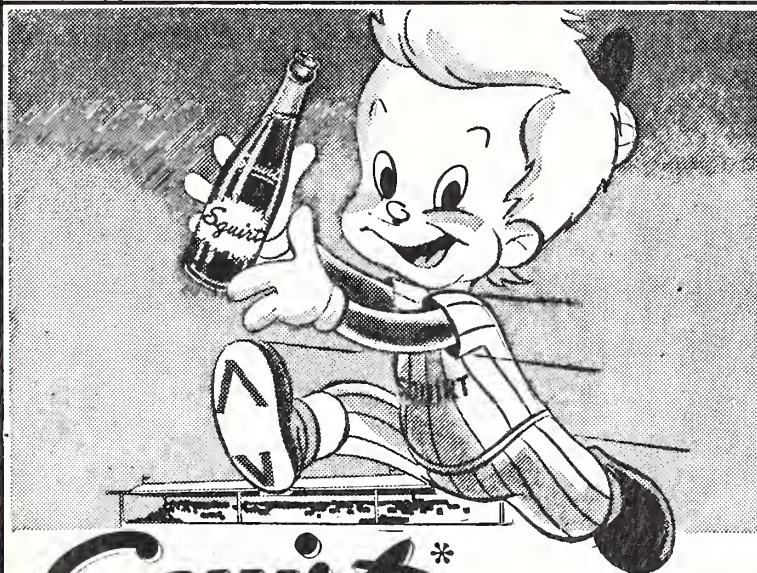

The true worth of education depends entirely on the use made of it. It may be used either to improve or to destroy social and economic progress. It may be used to build character, mind and body; to provide better food, clothing and homes; to protect individual freedom and the minority; to make every one more self supporting; and to do unto others as we would like for them to do unto ourselves.

Too often Education is used to make war far more destructive of property, lives and human relations; to live a parasitic life on the labor of others; to conceal dishonesty; and to destroy confidence and good will among men.

Education without character may do more harm than good. Education WITH CHARACTER is the only hope of saving our Civilization.
